We are proud to be Pembrokeshire's Leading Law firm.

Services

RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY

For many people buying their home may represent the biggest financial commitment that they ever undertake. Our team are residential property specialists committed to providing you with the detailed practical advice you need, in order for you to properly understand the process and make informed decisions about your transaction.

We have over 100 years of experience in residential conveyancing and deal with over 1,000 property transactions each year. Our team of specialists combine experience in terms of both local area knowledge and City work experience, which gives our clients the benefit of professionals dedicated to providing prompt and tailored advice.

Technology plays an increasingly large part in the conveyancing process and at Lowless & Lowless we are committed to ensuring we use this to its full potential, in order to provide the most efficient and cost effective service to our clients.

We are also able to call upon the skills of our colleagues specialising in planning, agricultural property, rural business, property litigation and tax planning to provide the complete residential property package.

PRIVATE CLIENT

Over 70% of the UK population does not have a current Will that is an accurate reflection of their financial and personal circumstances. Making a Will creates certainty, reduces worry and gives you the peace of mind knowing exactly how your money, property and possessions will be dealt with after your death. It is our view that personal contact is extremely important when making a Will and that every Will should be tailor made to suit a client's particular requirements.

Our experienced team are pro active and provide practical solutions to suit your needs, whether that is asset preservation or inheritance Tax Planning.

We also act as professional Executors in respect of numerous estates and generally assist clients with regard to estate administration.

Lowless & Lowless are happy to offer home visits to the elderly, infirm and disabled.

CRIMINAL LAW

Police Station Matters

We have a number of the team available to attend the police station 24 hours a day. We have extensive experience of advising suspects accused of all manner of offences, ranging from murder and sexual offences to theft and road traffic matters.

Magistrates' Court Matters

Our solicitors represent clients before the magistrates' courts on a daily basis. Backed-up by a team of experienced case-workers, their expertise both in terms of advocacy and the law means that our clients can be confident that they will receive the best possible representation before the magistrates' courts.

Crown Court Matters

If you face more serious matters in the Crown Court, our team of lawyers will make sure that you are fully prepared and that you are represented by an experienced advocate. We will advise you on your legal position, and will make sure that your case is presented to the court in a clear and favourable light, no matter what the circumstances.

FAMILY, MATRIMONIAL & RELATIONSHIPS

The breakdown of a relationship can be one of the most traumatic periods of anyone's life. Naturally, you will be concerned about your financial and property arrangements and how it will affect any children you may have.

Our Family Team advises and represents clients in all types of family matters including divorce, co-habitee disputes, children and financial disputes.

We are used to advising clients in difficult emotional situations. We aim to provide sympathetic personal advice tailored to your individual circumstances and requirements. We offer prompt and practical advice on how to cope with problems and resolve them.

Our Family Team has considerable experience in advising and representing clients from all backgrounds with all types of problems and disputes. Members of the team are members of the Law Society's Advanced Family Law Panel and 'Resolutor' (formerly the Solicitors Family Law Association).
